Statement of John Reyner of Dover, New England granting share of lands in England to Job Lane of Malden;

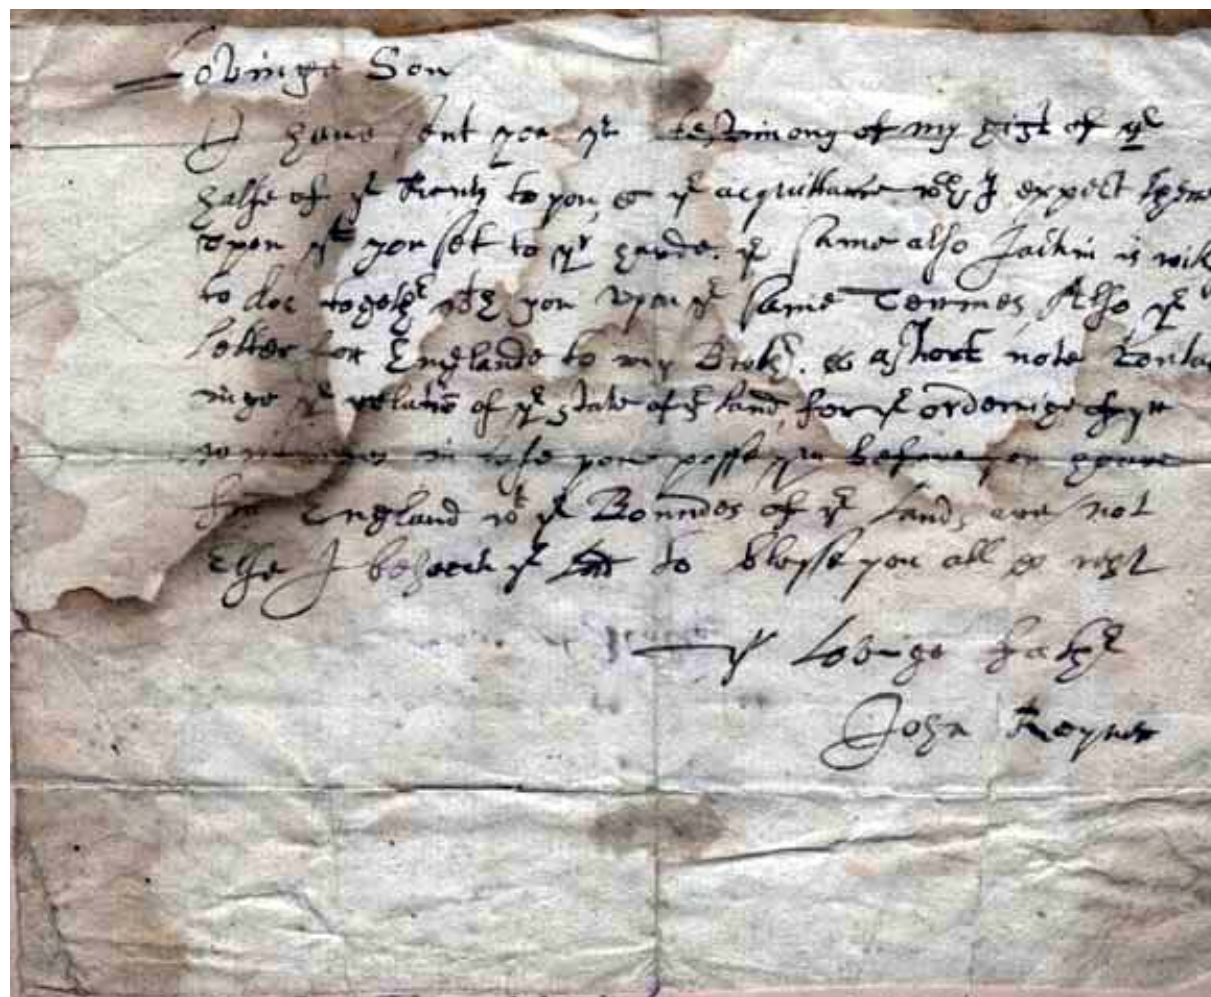

On same paper, letter from John Reyner to Job Lane (loving son)

Be it known to all men by these presents that I, John Reyner of Dover in New England, for reasons moving me thereto, do give and grant unto Job Lane, of Malden in New England, my son-in-law, one half of the rents due to me as Tenant for my life by the Courtesy of England, to certain housing and lands lying within the townships of Edgton and Welburn in the county of York, now in the occupation of Matthew Boyse of Edgton. In witness whereof I have set my hand this 5th day of August, A. D., 1662.

Loving son, I have sent you the testimony of my gift of the half of the rents to you and your acquittance which I expect thereupon that you set to your hand. The same also Jachin is willing to do together with you upon the same terms. Also the letter for England for my brother, and a short note containing the relation of the state of the land, for the ordering of your writings in case you pass them before you hear from England, with the bounds of your land, and not else. I beseech the Lord to bless you all and rest

Your loving father,
John Reyner
