Statement by Jachin Reyner of Rowley in Essex County acknowledging quit claim to Job Lane of Billerica, carpenter, for payment by Job of £150 for Jachin's share of lands in England

September 26, 1678

Testimony of Jachin Reynor that he owned the English lands after his mother's death and sold it to his brother Job Lane

Be it known to all men by these presents that I, Jachin Reyner of Rowley in the county of Essex, Tan<sup>r</sup>, have remised, released, and for me, my heirs and executors perpetually quit claimed to Job Lane, of Billerica in Middlesex, Carpenter, all and all manner of actions, suits, debts, quarrels, executions, trespasses, and demands which I, the said Jachin, mine heirs and executors have had might or ought to have had against the said Job, his heirs or executors, by reason of any obligation for the payment of one hundred fifty-five pounds, for the purchase of his fourth part of land which is situate, lying, or being in Yorkshire in Old England; the other parts whereof belong to Mr. Robinson, Mr. Prudden, and one Symonds j and that from any such time or act since or whereby the said Job Lane hath been obliged unto me in this kind, until the day of the date of these presents. In witness whereof I have set to my hand this 6th day of June in the year 1668.

I Jachin Reyner do testifie that he heard his father often say and affirm that the land that came in by my mother's right, I was heir to the whole of it after his decease ; and so apprehending, I sold it to my brother Job Lane.

Witness my hand this 26th September, 1678.
